

We share because we care

You have the right to control how your information is shared.

We collect, use and share only the information we need.

Your information may be shared within your circle of care.

Your information may be shared to provide you with the best care possible.

We will talk to you about who is in your circle of care as your health needs change.

We keep your circle of care as small or large as necessary to provide you with the best care.

Ask us for more information.

