

YOUR HEALTH CARE BENEFITS

Eligibility For Coverage

THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES COVERAGE FOR INSURED HEALTH SERVICES IS NOT AUTOMATIC. A PERSON MUST BE A RESIDENT OF THE NWT TO QUALIFY FOR COVERAGE.

- notify the NWT Health Care Plan by completing a Temporary Absence Form found at www.hss.gov.nt.ca
- remain in the NWT for 153 cumulative days before another extended absence from the territory

Note: Students studying outside the NWT must notify the NWT Health Care Plan in writing (see Studying Outside the NWT? brochure).

How to register

Registration forms are available at health facilities such as: medical clinics, doctor's offices, public health centres, hospitals, and the Health Services Administration (HSA) office.

If you are not a Canadian citizen, you must also submit one of the following with your registration form:

- working visa
- student visa
- minister's permit

After the HSA office approves your application, you will be issued a NWT Health Care Card with a personal health care number. Keep this card with you as you must present the card to receive health care benefits.

To ensure your coverage is maintained, notify the HSA office if:

- you lose your card
- your name or address changes
- you move out of the NWT

When do benefits begin?

If you have moved to the NWT from another Canadian province or territory, benefits begin on the first day of the third month following your arrival. Remember to register. During the first three months of residency, benefits are provided by the Health Care Plan of your former province or territory. You must ensure your benefits from your previous jurisdiction will continue during this period. Most jurisdictions do not cover medical travel.

Note: Temporary residents must contact their previous province or territory to inform them of their temporary absence so that their coverage is maintained.

For persons discharged from the Canadian Armed Forces, federal penitentiary, or Canadian citizens returning to the NWT from living outside Canada, coverage is effective the day you establish permanent residency in the NWT provided appropriate backup paperwork is provided.

If you are not a Canadian citizen and are moving to the NWT from outside Canada, your coverage is effective the day you arrive in the NWT (see How to register for more information). If an infant is born out of the NWT to a NWT resident, NWT coverage is effective at birth. Note that parents must register their infants; there is not an automatic registration process.

Leaving the NWT?

If you are in an accident or become ill while travelling outside the NWT and need air or ground ambulance services, please note that your NWT Health Care Plan does NOT provide coverage for these services, or for the cost of any related services such as hospital transfer, escorts, and return transportation charges. Travel must originate in the NWT in order to be eligible for medical travel benefits. For these other expenses, consider purchasing additional insurance coverage from a private insurance company before you travel.

If you move within Canada, register with the Health Care Plan of your new home province or territory. Medically required physician and hospital services will continue under the NWT health care plan until the first day of the third month following your departure from the NWT.

If you move outside Canada, benefits stop on the date of departure from Canada. You are required to contact the NWT Health Care Plan of your departure date.
